The threshing operations in South Alberta will be well wound up by the first of October. The final estimates of the yield can better be made then. To The Press it seems incredible that the optimistic estimates can be maintained. If, as we suppose, the yield brings the estimate figures down about fifty million bushels it will be interesting to note the effect on the wheat prices. Agriculture can not withstand the burden it is now carrying. It is becoming stagnant. It can't beat the game of fixed charges. In short, there is no "culture" in agriculture. The fine clothes and high priced automobiles are mostly in the cities and towns. An ordinary factory employe lives in a more comfortable home than the average farmer can possibly maintain. Farming is a sick industry and it is lousy with parasites taking toll at every turn. Instead of a "basic" industry it has become a "debased" industry. Why, the foreclosure charges on a farm mortgage are more than average net returns on a quarter section of Western Canada farm land. Unlike most farmers, we cannot conscientiously blame the other fellow for all the trouble. The farmer as a class has not become a scientific business man and depends upon the "other fellow" to conduct his business affairs. Of course, the "other fellow" has become too greedy. Greedy people are frequently placed on a forced diet. Let these fellows take their medicine next.

R. H. Hughes has decided to close out his drug business at Lomond and will re-establish himself in the town of Claresholm. The store will be closed on Sept. 30th.

The Consolidated School affairs have again become settled by the fact that the board has decided to continue with the services of the three teachers, at least until the Christmas holiday period.

Dave Munro is nursing a broken arm, he having suffered the fracture while helping to put on the drive belt on the McKay outfit. He is now having lots of fun watching his new wind mill pump water.

There is no such thing as a respectable bootlegger. The traffic and its participants present no quality of merit. Its lure of easy money degrades manhood to such an extent that even the "King of Bootleggers" and his 20-year-old daughter stands jointly charged with the murder of Constable Lawson at Coleman, in the Crows Nest Pass. The constable leaves a family of a wife and five children. Public sentiment can be held largely responsible for this. It has upheld a certain glamour surrounding the dexterous accomplishments of such law evaders. Some such affair as this simply had to happen to awaken the public conscience.

H. Jewsbury of Armad threshed wheat at the rate of thirty-three bushels to the acre off his pet six-acre slough.

Harry Tawse is another corn experimenter, having ripened white flint on his farm this year.

The Municipal District Council will meet on Monday, Oct. 2nd.

Mrs. E. M. Nelson of Orion formerly of the Standard Bank staff at Lomond, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orbie Baker.

Frank Connolly, Vern Davies and Mr. McGill took a flying trip to the Sunburst oil fields over the week-end and report great activity on the Montana side of the line with about 85 derricks in sight. The producing wells are pumping around a thousand barrels of crude oil per day. There are a few rigs drilling on the Canadian side but none have yet struck the paying sands.

Fort William. — A. F. Hawkins, superintendent of terminals, Canadian Pacific Railway, received framed and autographed photographs of Lord and Lady Byng, as souvenirs of what they characterized as a very pleasant day spent at Savanne, a point a short distance west upon the Canadian Pacific Railway. A letter, written Superintendent Hawkins, read as follows:

"Their excellencies, the governor-general and Lady Byng, of Vimy, desire to express to you their warmest thanks for all the arrangements you made for their comfort and recreation at Savanne last Sunday. They had a most enjoyable trip on the lake in the motor boat provided, and feel greatly benefitted by the rest which they feel was largely due to your trouble. Everyone on the train is very grateful to you for what you have done."

"Their excellencies hope you will accept the photographs of themselves, which accompany this letter as a souvenir of what was to them a very pleasant day."

Invest in a Practical Course at the Olds School of Agriculture

Statistics show that farmers who have had an education make larger incomes than those who have received but little instruction in the art of scientific farming.

In light crop years and in strenuous financial times, such as the country is now experiencing, a thorough training in one's profession is absolutely essential if success is to be attained. Under our present improved methods of farming, men work large areas of land with a minimum amount of labor. They plow and cultivate their soil with appropriate implements at a specific time. They select varieties of grain and kinds of crops that are known to give larger returns than the ordinary varieties and kinds. They treat their seed to control disease, and plant at rates per acre which experiments have shown to give maximum yields. They follow a system of crop rotation which aims at the conservation of soil fibre and the production of maximum yields of a variety of grain and feed. They select improved types of breeding animals and feed their stock in accordance with knowledge derived from the chemistry of foods, and their home are equipped with modern labor saving conveniences.

To keep up with the times and to make the most money from the farm one should know how to farm in accordance with these improved methods. You can learn these methods at the Olds School of Agriculture. Education pays; you can learn in a few months what it would take years of experience to give you. Talk with any ex-student regarding the value of the course at the O.S.A.

Classes in Agriculture and Domestic Science commence on October 31st.

A Family Necessity

No other journal caters so intimately and minutely to the needs of the agriculturalist as does the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. From his medical to his religious needs, from the health of his stock to the capabilities of his machinery, from his ladies' embroidery to their pickles, from the minerals on the land to the fish in the brooks, from the books of his leisure hours to the amusements of his children, from his individual cares to his public duties, he finds companionship, health and guidance in the same old journal, which delighted his fathers and is the joy of his children today. He could not afford to be without the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. The subscription price is $2.00 per year.

Returns received to date by the Department of Finance indicate a very general acceptance of the proposals for the conversion of 1922 Victory Bonds into new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest and running for a further period of five or ten years as desired. Many holders would like to take up considerably more of the new bonds than they have of the maturing issue, but this is not permitted as cash subscriptions are not being invited at this time. It is open, of course, for such persons to add to their holdings of 1922 bonds by purchasing them in the market or from holders who require the cash and then to surrender them for new bonds. It is known that this is being done.

The town of Vulcan may soon boast a flour mill. Local business men are organizing the proposition.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:—

- (a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

LOCALETS

The past week has been one of farewells—not to the dying, fortunately—but to the departing residents of the village of Lomond.

On Tuesday evening an impromptu luncheon and smoker was indulged in by a number of friends for Constable Cawsey who was leaving for his new detachment as Barons. Joe was the genial caterer. Speech making and vocal efforts helped out the "eats" and "smokes".

On Wednesday evening the Ladies Aid organized a surprise raid upon Mrs. (Dr.) Walkey. Meeting at the home of Mrs. Dilley at eight o'clock, the entire party went forth in a frontal attack carrying rather dainty and delicate "rations" for the intended bivouac. A very pleasant social evening was the result. Musical selections were provided by Mrs. Dilley, Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Pederson and Miss Asselstine. A pretty piece of cut glass was presented to Mrs. Walkey by the ladies as a token of esteem.

On Friday evening a dance was celebrated in Vickers' Hall to do honor to Mr. and Mrs. H. Elves, who are taking up their residence in Calgary for the time being. About thirty couples were on the floor, dancing starting at an early hour. Very satisfactory music was contributed by Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Asselstine and Miss Pederson, and Messrs. Manning and Plunkett. The lunch hour proved very enticing and was eased off by a few vocal selections.

The Eastern war clouds have about cleared away.
